

Hillingdon Connected

Connecting the Voluntary sector in West London

An innovative free community web portal which gives:

- Details about local voluntary and community organisations
- Information on groups and organisations that provide advice and support on issues of concern
- Diary of community events
- News relating to the voluntary and community sector
- Job opportunities in the sector
- Resources, e.g. documents/publications, venues for hire
- Up to date information on training opportunities

Hillingdon Connected will support local groups by:

- Providing networking opportunities on a local, national, regional and global level
- Providing a means for organisations to promote activities
- Giving access to relevant information on issues such as job opportunities,

Giving members of the community the opportunity to:

- Find organisations that provide services they need
- Get involved in improving their neighbourhood
- Share ideas with like minded people and discuss topics of interest
- participate in local organisations and activities

During the training session for members you will be able to:

- Create a free web site for your organisation
- Post your organisations events and activities in the online diary
- Update your organisations details
- Communicate more effectively with the public and members of your organisation

If you don't want your organisation listed on the web through Hillingdon community web portal, don't hesitate to contact HAVS and we will be glad to remove you from the list.
